

First Line of Defense: Tracing Five Core Mission Threads through CIA History

Thursday March 30, 2023

16:00 – 17:00

UNM Dane Smith Hall Room 233

RSVP to gnspi@unm.edu

First Line of Defense - CIA's mission is to accomplish what others cannot accomplish and go where others cannot go. For the past 75 years, five core mission threads have characterized the Agency's mission: clandestine collection, all-source analysis, covert action, partnerships, and counterintelligence. The presentation will trace these five core mission threads to illuminate some of the Agency's key historical operations.

Toni Hiley
CIA Museum Director
Emeritus

About the speaker: Toni Hiley is an Albuquerque native who directed operations for the CIA Museum for two decades until her retirement in 2018. Now a consultant to the Intelligence Community and other select organizations on museum best practices, she is passionate about using history and culture to educate, inspire, engage through inventive museum exhibits, informative publications, and multimedia.

Refreshments will be served.

RSVP to gnspi@unm.edu for Zoom link